

Employment Hamilton (EH) has been delivering employment and training services to clients and employers since 1972. Funded by Employment Ontario / Fedcap Canada, EH offers Employment Counselling, Better Jobs Ontario and a Resource and Information Centre.

EH prides itself on providing superior service in a welcoming environment that promotes integrity and respect. We are looking for an outgoing individual who enjoys working with a diverse clientele; a team player who is eager to learn, who is a skilled listener and excels in written and verbal communication.

At EH, the role of Employment Counsellor is multi-faceted. Not only would you be working one-on-one with clients in their employment and training pursuits, but you would also be working with employers and community partners to benefit EH clients. Innovative thinking and the ability to effectively contribute to a team environment are critical components of the position.

Responsibilities include:

- Meeting and working with a diverse clientele to establish and implement Employment Action Plans based on effective assessments that reflect the needs of each client and addresses any barriers to employment
- Creating effective resumes; assisting with realistic goal setting; advising on job search techniques; preparing clients for interview opportunities; assisting with apprenticeship pursuits and assessing for training programs
- Maintaining accurate documentation of an ongoing caseload in the database systems
- Utilizing superior writing / proofreading abilities to create a variety of documents including resumes and letters
- Applying and continually enhancing knowledge of the Hamilton Labour Market, trends, tools, resources, programs and opportunities
- Liaising with community partners / agencies and accessing resources to assist with successful outcomes ensuring current knowledge of all resources is maintained
- Problem solving job placements, including at the client's workplace to ensure a successful outcome
- Maintaining an up-to-date caseload of job seekers meeting all expectations for progress and contact activity
- Motivating and supporting job seekers through making linkages to other supports as required based on individual circumstances
- Marketing clients to employers, meeting with employers to provide services / tools / resources and placement monitoring
- Completing all data entry and other documentation in a timely manner
- Communicating, in a team setting, opportunities, ideas and information to assist with the successful outcomes of all clients and goals of the organization
- Employment Counsellor role may involve some workshop facilitation

Qualifications

While experience in employment counselling is an asset, this an entry-level opportunity, with training for the right candidate with the following qualifications:

- The ability to successfully and professionally carry out the responsibilities listed above
